

It started over 60 years ago when a few friends got together and started painting. They met at the Congregational Church's basement in Rockville. We now meet at the Tolland Art Center in Tolland on the Green, an original structure from Tolland's beginning. TCAA has been in continuous operation since the beginning and through hard work and perseverance has flourished. We hold 2 Shows each year, a Members Show and Open Show as well as a Tuesday Painters Group and Evening demo's and Meetings. We're truly an integral part of the cultural environment of our surrounding communities.

ASSOCIATION

An art organization for area artists at any stage of learning, and patrons.

PINK IRIS' BY JANE BURR

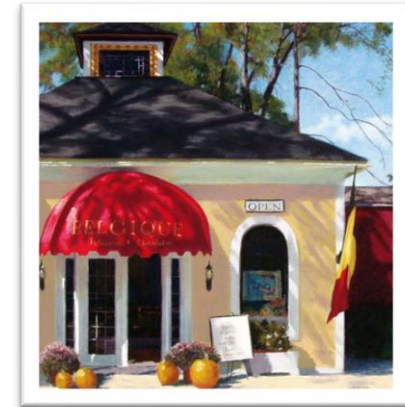

TCAA Mission Statement

To encourage cooperation and free association among artists, art teachers, art students, craft persons, publishers and others engaged in artistic activities and expression; to provide exhibitions; to promote the study and improvement of the arts and to integrate art into the surrounding society.

We invite you to join the Tolland County Art Association

A recent visiting artist noted, "you certainly are a cohesive group with lots going on."

This is an accurate snapshot of our club and we welcome all artists and patrons. We have evening meetings several times a year that include a visiting professional artist to demonstrate some of their expertise. At those meetings we'll briefly discuss art events in our area as well as mentioning congratulations to our members for a recent sale or award. There's the Paintings of the Month where art is hung in area public spaces. On Tuesday mornings we have the Tuesday Painters Open Studio, workshop, or figure drawing sessions. Holiday pot lucks, and spontaneous field trips to various museums or studios, or even a day out for lunch. We have fun while practicing our art! We would love to have you join us where we derive inspiration without intimidation. We always remember that an artist is always in the process of learning and what better environment than with other artists.
